Parish Mission

With Fr. John Kartje

March 2-4, 2020 7 PM

In the spiritual life, knowing your enemy is half the battle. Join us as we unpack the 2000-year-old wisdom of our Catholic tradition, using three classic books to explore the strategy of our spiritual enemy and how we can employ God's grace to more wisely discern challenging choices in our daily lives. Be sure to invite a friend!

March 2: "In the Beginning"

Using the Bible as a spiritual guide through the journey of temptation, sin, forgiveness, and redemption—from the Garden of Eden to the empty tomb.

March 3: "Climb Every Mountain"

Using Dante's Divine Comedy as a spiritual guide to honestly name our weaknesses, battle temptation, and convert our hearts to embrace the will of God.

March 4: "Better the Devil You Know than the Devil You Don't"

Using C. S. Lewis' Screwtape Letters as a spiritual guide to unmask the subtle ways that the devil's temptations work their way into our habits and choices.
