Breaking Bread with our Immigrant Brothers & Sisters

SUNDAY, OCTOBER 27, 2024

10:45 am – 1:00 pm

Bethany Baptist Church Social Hall
3532 S. Hoyne Ave., Chicago

Volunteers are invited with their families to provide and share a meal with asylum seekers and the community supporting these newly arrived families. Register to bring one or more of the following. We will be hosting 60 guests, plus our volunteers. Please indicate how many people will attend with you. This is a wonderful family service project. Volunteers will meet at the Bethany Baptist Church Social Hall at 10:30 am. Please bring all food items ready to serve in disposable containers.

- 2 Volunteers to each bring one large pan of plain pasta noodles
- 2 Volunteers to each bring one large pan of pasta noodles with red (marinara) sauce
- 2 Volunteers to each bring a large pan of meatballs in red sauce (40-50 meatballs)
- 1 Volunteer to bring a large pan of sausage & peppers in red sauce (40-50 pieces of sausage)
- 3 Volunteers to each bring a large pan of tossed salad, dressing on the side
- 4 Volunteers to each bring a large pan of garlic bread, cut into pieces
