These monthly dinners are designed for us to talk about where we see the presence of God in our lives, family, and community, as we enjoy a salad and pasta dinner. We will avoid theological debates and discussions, and focus on recognizing the presence of the Holy Spirit in our midst. We look forward to sharing our experiences of seeing the face of God in the people we love, in members of our community, or in complete strangers. We hope that you can join us for 55 minutes of dinner and conversation.
